Objective

Seeking a position as an intern web developer, Front-End to be precise where extensive experience will be further developed and utilized. As a Front-End developer at your organization/company building, recreating and maintaining the company's website will be made easy by me, as the company will not have to always put their focus towards creating, maintaining their website, making that a less work for the company to stress on. Therefore as a worker at your company, I will make the company's website very User-Friendly and easy to use by the customer.
